Coats & Capes Tomorrow. and Capes will be worn this fall and winter call at the store tomorrow. There is not a shape indorsed by fashion au-thorities but that is represented. We had wonderful success with Coats and Capes last winter, and at the end of the season closed out every garment in stock, in order that we might be able to say that every one we now have is absolutely of this season's manufacture— the very latest styles produced. There is such a pronounced change this sea-son that your last year's Coat will not oue. The sleeves have grown fuller, the and fur-edged.

Black and brown will be favorites, closely pushed by green, navy and tan.

"NINTH AND THE AVENUE,"

UNNY FALL-A LITTLE RAIN-Saturday's Great Bargains. HE VALUES WE'VE BEEN giving here of late have surprised economic people. Never were staple goods so cheap; never have we been able to crowd so much worth into a dollar. Tomorrow's bargains are as great as any we've ever offered.

Perfumes, 19c. Tomorrow only. "Jockey Club," "White Rose," "Crab Apple," "Bouquet Regale," "Mary Stuart Bouquet," "Cyclamer" and other fragrant odors. Regular prices, 30 and 35 cts. ounce. SATURDAY'S PRICE, 19 CENTS OUNCE.

The celebrated "Crown" Perfumes are to be had he t. Two new odors are worthy of especial mention—"English Rose" and "Peau d'Espagne." They're delightful. More Gloves!

We've been bought out of the 75-cent "Biarrits" Pigskin Gloves we've been selling for 45 cts. a pair. This was a job lot, you'll remember. People have been asking for them so generally that we've decided to let our own elegant stock of 75-cent Pigskins go tomorrow for 48 Cts. Pair.

The 4-button Novelty Glaces are almost exhausted. Only 860 pairs remain. Regu-lar $1.50 Gloves that have "flown" at our price-48 cents. Tomorrow they'll suffer a still greater reduction. Any pair you de-sire may be had for

Only about 800 pairs.

Hosiery. We place on sale tomorrow a big variety of Silk Hose that have never beest sold before for less than 75 cents. All sizes, in navy, cardinal, gray, lavander, russet, maine, white and black. They're here by mistake, and the jobber wasts us to try and sell them. He filled our order once, and then, by mistake, duplicated it. The first lot went in a "jiffy" at 75 cents a pair. This lot is an perfect as the
